"ADMINISTRATION ACT."

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 64 of the "Administration Act," His Honour the Administrator in Council, by Order in Council No. 1061, approved on the 19th day of June, 1945, has been pleased to make the following regulations:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING THE RECEIPTS AND PAYMENTS OF MONEY AND THE KEEPING OF BOOKS AND ACCOUNTS BY OFFICIAL ADMINISTRATORS, MADE PURSUANT TO SECTION 64 OF THE "ADMINISTRATION ACT."

1. ESTATES RECORD-BOOK.—The Official Administrator shall keep a book in Form O.A. 1, hereto attached, in which there shall be entered in chronological order a record of all deaths reported to him in his official capacity, stating the source of the information and action taken, correspondence file index, date of Court Order for Letters of Administration obtained or affidavit made in respect of small estates, revocation of temporary administration, or other disposition of the case.

Renunciations to or requests for the Official Administrator to be appointed to administer an estate shall also be noted in the estates record-book at the date the appointment is accepted.

The date of publication of appointment of the Official Administrator, except in cases of estates where publication is dispensed with by Court Order, shall be entered in the estates record-book against the name of the relative estate, stating the newspaper or newspapers in which the notice appeared.

The dates and amounts of duties paid in respect of estates controlled by the Official Administrator shall be duly noted in the estates record-book against the names of the estates entered therein.

2. CASH-BOOK.—The Official Administrator shall keep a cash-book in Form O.A. 2, hereto attached, in which a daily record shall be made of all moneys received by him, with details as to the nature or source of the funds and the estate to be credited. Any necessary disbursements made directly by the Official Administrator shall also be recorded in the cash-book, which shall be closed by the transfer monthly to the Provincial Treasury of all moneys received, less such necessary disbursements.

The monthly transfers to the Provincial Treasury shall be accompanied by a list in Form O.A. 4 and the Schedule thereto in Form O.A. 4A, hereto attached, showing the amounts to be credited to each separate estate in the Intestate Estates Fund maintained at the Treasury, and the total of each list shall agree with the amount of the relative transfer.

3. INVENTORY X.—The Official Administrator shall compile and keep on record in each separate estate file under his administration an inventory of estate assets in the form of Inventory X in the Schedule to the "Succession Duty Act."

Full descriptions and valuations of any property summarized in item 12 of Inventory X shall be listed on separate schedules appended to the inventory form, and where the property is of substantial value the valuation shall be certified by independent and responsible appraisers.

4. ESTATE PROPERTY RECORDS (FORMS O.A. 11 (a), 11 (b), 12, 13, 14).—Real estate held, agreements for sale of land, mortgages receivable, life insurance policies, promissory notes or other receivables shall be recorded on estate record sheets according to such of the Forms O.A. 11 (a), 11 (b), 12, 13, or 14, hereto attached, as are applicable thereto.

Data relative to payments of taxes, maintenance of the properties, collections of principal, interest, rentals, etc., shall be entered on these sheets promptly from the cash-book, and final disposition of each particular property or asset shall be clearly noted on the estate record sheets concerned.

Interest-bearing bonds shall be entered on estate record sheets according to Form O.A. 15, hereto attached, on which full description of each security, interest due dates, etc., shall be shown, and reference shall be made thereon to the cash-book entries covering interest receipts and sale or other disposition of the bonds.

Stocks and shares shall be listed on an estate record sheet according to Form O.A. 16, hereto attached, and the registration, sale, or transfer of these securities shall be duly recorded thereon.

An estate record sheet according to Form O.A. 17, hereto attached, shall be used to record and account for the custody, realization, or disposal of the Other Property items included in item 12 of Inventory X and relative schedules. The items included will vary for the different estates, but the entries must be sufficiently detailed to connect the cash-book entries for receipts with the items disposed of and adequately account for the various assets.

5. ESTATE (CASH) ACCOUNTS, RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS.—Separate ledger accounts in Form O.A. 3, hereto attached, shall be maintained by the Official Administrator for each estate under his control, in which all moneys received shall be credited and all disbursements debited.

The receipts shall be entered to the estate accounts from the Official Administrator's cash-book. Debit entries covering necessary disbursements made directly by the Official Administrator from his cash collections shall be made to the estate accounts from the Official Administrator's cash-book. All other disbursements shall be debited from the advices filed by the Official Administrator with the Provincial Treasury authorizing payments for account of the respective estates.

Estate (cash) account balances shall be listed at the end of each month on a Schedule in Form O.A. 6, hereto attached, and the combined total agreed with the balance shown at debit of the Treasury Control account in the Official Administrator's cash-book (Form O.A. 2). Any difference shall be traced by the Administrator and corrected immediately. The annual return required by section 53 of the "Administration Act" shall be made according to Form O.A. 7, hereto attached.

6. INTESTATE ESTATES FUND RECONCILIATION WITH TREASURY RECORDS.—To maintain agreement between the Official Administrator's estate (cash) account balances and the Provincial Treasury in regard to balances in the Intestate Estates Fund at credit of the various Administrators, special columns are included in the Official Administrator's cash-book to produce an outstanding-balances control total at each month end, which should represent the Official Administrator's combined estate balances on deposit with the Provincial
